"I'm from Madawaska, Maine was born in Fort Kent, Maine; probably the furthest north you can go without actually being in Canada. I grew up playing all sports possible, but a couple of my favorite ones are Baseball, football, and hockey. I went to school at Eastern Maine Community College where i acquired my Associates degree in Computer Science. I then moved down here to Hinesville, Georgia with my family. Some of my hobbies include building computers, fixing them, working out, hanging out with my Fiancee and my 5 month old daughter. I also love to play video games and watch movies whenever possible." -Tanner Carrier

My name is Husain Abdulmalik, but I just go by Malik. I'm originally from Long Island New York, but spent my 20's in Northern California. I spent 10 years Bartending and managing hotels before I was introduced to Wireless. I have a history of hitting my goals and elevating all numbers and personnel in every store I was ever stationed in. My favorite show is CSI: Cyber.

"I am 26 years old and live in Statesboro, GA. I graduated from Georgia Southern University in 2017 with a Bachelor's in Psychology and plan to return to school to study sport psychology in the future. I enjoy health and fitness, music, video games, fashion, culinary arts, and learning new crafts. CSI: Miami is my favorite show in the series; imagine me right now as Horatio Caine putting on my sunglasses, quipping out a one-liner and ending this biography with a YEAHHHHHH!" -Trey Exley

Before joining the ranks of cellular sales in the wireless Industry, Izdine/Adam worked as a representative for Chrysler (CDJR) and Toyota. He attended Savannah technical college for a degree in marketing management and networking. Originating from Africa, he is fluent in both French, English and two local dialects. Having received a very traditional education, he highly values respect and transparency in the workplace. Off the clock, films, custom PC rigs building, cooking and gaming are were he's interests are. An occasional beer and card game are also par for the course.

Jonathan Seckinger was born in Jacksonville, FL and moved shortly afterwards to Savannah, GA where he has since been raised along with his 11 other siblings. Coming from a big family helped him with many social environments and learning technical skills by closely watching his father and older brothers. He was homeschooled by his mother until the age of 18 and went to work for multiple phone repair stores in the Savannah area where he gained years of cellular knowledge and experience. He currently works as a salesman at Verizon and always welcomes customers with a smile.

Ed Vista is a 29 year old father of 2, Army veteran and fitness enthusiast. In his spare time, he enjoys being a flight student, gym buff and nerd. The last several years he has worked in the fitness industry as a personal trainer and coach while starting flight school with the goal to one day fly helicopters for a living. He currently lives in the greater Savannah area and can most often be found sipping wine and taking long romantic walks by himself on the beach.
